

Sample Lesson

1. Find the word evident in a thesaurus or dictionary. Underline its meaning.

mistaken suspicious clear dangerous

2. Add commas.

Michael our skateboard instructor won't let us on the ramps without elbow and knee pads.

3. Underline the correct verb in this sentence.

Some of you (has / have) softball practice after lunch today.

4. Which contraction is spelled correctly?

mighta've could've woulda'

5. Change these adjectives to adverbs by adding the suffix -ly. Write the adverbs below.

short → _____ wild → _____

pleasant → _____

6. Remember, adjectives modify nouns or pronouns. Adverbs modify verbs. Underline the adjective; circle the adverb.

The boys slept well in the new tent.

7. Join these two sentences with a conjunction. Write the compound sentence below.

Richard is great at building things. He wants to be an architect.

8. Circle the simple subject.

Larry, my cousin from Texas, always spends the Fourth of July with us.

Proof It! Read these sentences and then complete the last four items.

One of the best books i ever read was about a boy who run away from home. He survived in the wilderness for several weeks. No camping gear, food, or cell phone.

9. Underline the sentence that has no errors.
10. Draw a line through the fragment.
11. Rewrite the fragment as a complete sentence.

12. Use two editing marks to correct other errors.